MORNING WORSHIP

January 8, 2012

11:00 A.M.

Welcome to our church today!

Worship begins with the first note from the organ; may we take our seat and humbly bow our head in prayer asking that God draw near to us as we worship. Spend the time waiting by practicing the art of personal meditation. If you must whisper, whisper a prayer.

SPECIAL UPDATES

TO JAMES KENNEDY for repairing the handrail on the right side of the church. It was unstable, but is now secure. We appreciate it so much.

GOD'S HAND

Another year has come and gone;
I know not what comes with the dawn
Of this new year, but this I know—
God's hand will guide me as I go.
The power that calmed the waves at sea
Will still my doubts and comfort me;
And though the day be dark or fair,
I'll ever seek my Lord in prayer,
And God who loves the great and small
Will surely answer as I call.
The still small voice dispelling fears
Will guide me as in former years.
